

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

March 11, 1983

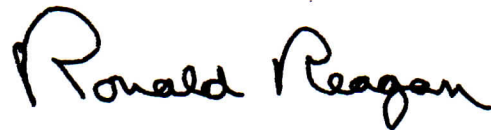

Dear Ms. Carlson:

I want to express to you my deep gratitude for your volunteering to come before my Task Force on Victims of Crime in order to help us find new ways to improve our criminal justice system.

I know it was not easy for you to relive experiences that must have caused you a great deal of pain and stress. I commend you for your courage and your unselfishness in coming forward to help us. People like you, who show concern for the well-being of their fellowman and their nation, convince me that America is still sound and strong.

God bless and keep you. You have served your country well.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ronald Reagan". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly slanted style.
